POEM

'Heritage+Growth+Creativity+Prosperity

The dot... the spot...

Hot to trot robots, fusing the collusion of the future

Choosing sutures of illusion - a fix-up or stitched up?

Well it depends on who you're choosing...

Yippie ki-yay, I mean yippie A.I.

From hippie homeboys to cowboy ploys in the valley of silicon alloys

The coy carp on and pluck the hearts of smart phones, smart mouths and smart minds

To generations of nations claiming to be one of a kind...

But if you looked outside of your tribe, you never know what you might find

The singing superhighway to 'I did it my way' doesn't mind which line your mind finds by day or maybe brimming at night, as you dream for the stars...

Until you wake to a spate of hate, fear of failure and uncertain fates...

The hour for Fusion skills as fields of flowers is necessary

Replace the weeds of exclusivity to inclusivity, with the seeds of pedagogy for flourishing creativity
