

Character builder

Use these questions to build up an idea for a character. You can write notes or paragraphs. You can add and answer your own questions if you would like to.

Who...

What sort of person are they? Male/female, rich/poor, young/old, free/enslaved? Be specific.

What...

What was their job? What was their personality like? What skills did they have to help them overcome challenges?

Where...

Where are they from? Were they a native Briton, from elsewhere in the Roman Empire (which covered most of Europe, parts of the Middle East and Northern Africa) or were they a Roman born in Londinium? Where do they live in Londinium?

When...

When did this person live in Roman London? What was happening at them time? What was Londinium like at that point?

Why...

Why is this person interesting? Why did you choose these characteristics?

How...

How do they feel? How did they cope with the challenges Roman Londoners faced?
