

Hold a Fire Court: Debate Cards.

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| | The Bankers and Business Owners |
| You have lost | Your business headquarters Your places to meet and trade The warehouses full of goods to sell |
| Your situation is | You are counting the cost of what you have lost You are trying to understand what could be saved |
| You need | Places to meet to do business New storage warehouses Buildings to store your money safely To rebuild the riverfront to start trading again |

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| | The Population of London |
| You are | |
| You have lost | Your homes and possessions Your jobs and means to earn money |
| Your situation is | You are camping on the fields on the outskirts of London You know that the colder seasons are coming |
| You need | Shelter Food Work and an income |

| | |
|-------------------|--|
| | The King, the Lord Mayor of London and the City Officials |
| You are | |
| You have lost | Authority over the City The Safety, Law and Order on the City streets |
| Your situation is | You have responsibility to restore order You are trying to organise the chaos |
| You need | To decide where to start the clean-up operation To decide how to take responsibility To find the planners and builders to help |

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| | The Church Authority and Leaders |
| You are | |
| You have lost | 87 out of 109 community churches St Paul's Cathedral |
| Your situation is | You are worried about your local communities You care about the emotional and spiritual wellbeing of your people |
| You need | To find and look after your friends and community members To build new community spaces for meeting To provide a place for prayer and worship |